RARE AND HARD TO FIND SELECTIONS

1988 Macanudo Vintage Collection: #2 Lonsdale

$450

Strength: 2.5 6 x 42 Wrapper: Connecticut Shade

The vintage selection from this, the most recognizable cigar brand in the U.S., has only been produced in four different years, 1979, 1984, 1988, and 1993. The natural and painstakingly slow aging process lasts a full 4 years and has a distinctive silky feel to the wrapper. This cigar is 35 years old from production and an additional 4 years of age make this cigar 36 Years OLD!

Partagas 160 Series: Robusto Major Vintage 1977

$400

Strength: 3.5 5 x 52 Wrapper: Cameroon

When Ramon Cifuentes wanted to commemorate the 150th anniversary in 1995 of the founding of Partagas in Cuba in 1845, he used the only bail of Cameroon wrapper to remain from the vintage crop of 1977, found in a barn in France. This incredible cigar is now 47 years old and very few remain. Only 10,000 boxes were made, each one numbered and autographed by the roller. This box was made in 2005 for the 160th anniversary using the same tobaccos as the original 1995 Issue.

Fuente Fuente Opus X:

Strength: 4.5 Sizes Vary Wrapper: Dominican Republic

This most sought-after production cigar is the flagship of the Arturo Fuente Family of cigars. Made from 100% Dominican tobacco, even the Wrapper comes from the private farms of Chateau de la Fuente. Only the most skilled torcedores (Master Roller) are invited to wrap this full bodied and rich stogie. Oily to the touch, Carlito Fuente spent 10 years searching for this blend. In 1998 and 1999, production was scaled back to protect the image and quality.

SEASONAL AND LIMITED EDITION

Arturo Fuente: Anejo #50 (sizes vary with availability)

$95

Strength: 4 5 1/4 x 50 Wrapper: Anejo Connecticut Broadleaf

Released only during Christmas and Father's Day, the Anejo uses a blend similar to the Fuente Fuente Opus X cigar but sports a five-year-old Connecticut broadleaf wrapper that has been aged in cognac barrels. This simple act of changing the wrapper creates an entirely different tasting cigar. Arturo Fuente Anejos are essentially the Maduro-wrapped equivalent of the famous Opus X blend.

Cohiba: Weller's Toro (sizes vary with availability)

Strength: 4 6 x 50 Wrapper: Ecuadorian Sumatran

Weller by Cohiba Cigars features an Ecuadorian Sumatra-seed wrapper over a Connecticut Broadleaf binder with Nicaraguan, Honduran and Dominican Piloto Cubano fillers. This is a full-bodied Cigar and produced in collaboration with the Weller Bourbon company which is a smooth bourbon with about 12 years of age on it. Weller by Cohiba Cigars offer tasty notes of earthiness, spices with a sweet profile. Limited Release and varies by year shape and size.

Andalusian Bull by La Flor Dominicana

Strength: 4 6 1/4 x 64 Wrapper: Corojo

La Flor Dominicana was awarded the #1 Cigar of 2016 honors and a well-deserved 96-rating! Here's what the experts had to say, "First impressions are bold and savory with strong notes of hickory and leather. But it continues to take on a complex spiciness of saffron and cumin as well as a slight tangy note that brings the strength and spice together quite gracefully—and it only gets better with every puff."

Macanudo: Maduro Vintage 1997

Strength: 3.5 5 1/2 x 52 Wrapper: Connecticut Broadleaf

Harvested from one of the Connecticut River Valley's most coveted crop years, the Macanudo Vintage Maduro 1997 cigar collection boasts a 27-year-old Connecticut Broadleaf maduro wrapper that looks just as elegant as it tastes. This rare Macanudo cigar has a strikingly dark color and inherently fragrant taste that connoisseurs crave. The bold, oily wrapper holds carefully blended Dominican and Mexican long fillers with a subtle spice that's seamlessly balanced by a touch of unforgettable sweetness.

MEDIUM BODY SELECTIONS

Davidoff: Millenium Pyramid $85

Strength: 3.5 6 ¼ x 52 Wrapper: Connecticut Shade Ecuador

This elegant Pyramid format creates a more intensified smoking experience as the cigar flavors slowly funnel during the draw. Featuring a very flavorful “151” wrapper which is dark and rich due to its maturity accentuates notes of wood, white pepper, licorice, caramel, spices, and chocolate. Together with its generous ring gauge, the cigar delivers a perfectly tailored medium to full bodied taste throughout. Davidoff Millennium cigars with their notes of roasted coffee pairs exceptionally well with coffee, and rums with slight coffee and chocolate notes. A whiskey aged in a sherry oak pair nicely with these flavors as well.

Cohiba Blue: Tubo Robusto $44

Strength: 3 5 ½ x 50 Wrapper: Honduran

Cohiba Blue showcases a gorgeously smooth Honduran wrapper which will wake the palate up right off the bat. Blue is filled with a three-country blend of Nicaraguan, Dominican, and Honduran tobaccos that are all held together by a Honduran habano binder. Produced in the Dominican Republic but heavy on the Honduran tobacco, this new gem is an inviting medium-bodied blend that is rife with rich hints of sweet leather, earth, cream, and cinnamon.

Arturo Fuente Hemingway: Short Story Perfecto Robusto $25

Strength: 3 4 1/8 x 48 Wrapper: Cameroon

Aficionados prize this truly remarkable cigar the world over. Made by Arturo Fuente, this very rich yet mild bodied cigar is made with the famous Cameroon wrapper, with an extra 140 days of natural aging. With its exquisite construction, this flavorful cigar has almost sweet undertones and a rich aroma.

La Aurora: Preferidos Ruby Tube Pot Bellied Robusto $52

Strength: 3.5 6 x 52 Wrapper: Connecticut Broad Maduro celebration of grandson to grandfather, Guillermo Jimenes has developed this cigar in the tradition of his grandfather's favorite smoke from 1903. This extremely difficult shape is wrapped with 8-year-old vintage Connecticut Broadleaf Maduro. Rich tones, bold fruit and deep flavors mark this cigar.

Cohiba: Riviera Toro perfecto $65

Strength: 3.5 6 ½ x 60 Wrapper: San Andrés Maduro

This is an exquisite cigar which enters new territory for the brand. Riviera is the only box-pressed offering in our collection, as well as the only to feature a San Andrés wrapper. Featuring a medium-bodied, three country blend, Cohiba Riviera is a unique expression, ideal for those wanting to experience a new view of luxury.

Rocky Patel Limited Reserve: 1990 Vintage $30

Strength: 3.5 6 x 50 Wrapper: Honduran Maduro

Rocky is a recovering attorney who has become famous in the cigar world for his legendary brand, Indian Tabac. This box pressed 1990 vintage cigar comes from a stash of tobacco lost in litigation for a decade. The 15 years of aging has resulted in an exquisitely rich and smooth, well-constructed, tasty smoke.

Diesel: Whiskey Row Sherry Cask $30

Strength: 3 6 x 50 Wrapper: Connecticut Broadleaf

The blend consists of a dark Connecticut Broadleaf wrapper and Nicaraguan fillers, but the barrel-aged Brazilian Arapiraca binder is the star of the show. The flavors are wonderfully influenced by the sherry casks, without becoming infused or overly sweet. Instead, you'll find notes of dark fruit, cedar, chocolate, and pepper, for a smooth medium-bodied experience that pairs great with any drinks with naturally sweet characteristics. Diesel created something truly special & unique with this release, so you won't want to hesitate to go down the Rabbit Hole.

FULL BODY

Winston Churchill by Davidoff: Robusto

$46

Strength: 4 5 1/4 x 52 Wrapper: Ecuador

Experience the Davidoff Winston Churchill Robusto with its harmonized flavors of leather, cream, spice, and dark coffee from tobaccos harvested from the Dominican Republic, Nicaragua, and Mexico, coupled with the oily, silky wrapper from Ecuador, achieves a perfect balance of complexity and strength. The slightly sweet notes of cedar in the Davidoff Winston Churchill pairs exceptionally well with whiskey such as Glenmorangie or Macallan Amber.

Oliva: Serie V Double Robusto

Strength: 4.5 5 x 54 Wrapper: Nicaraguan Habano

Oliva Cigar Co. of Miami Lakes Florida makes millions of cigars each year in Nicaragua. The brand is made by a small team of rollers in Nicaragua—only 22 are entrusted to make it, and unlike the other cigar makers in the factory they are paid on salary, rather than by the number of cigars they make. Oliva uses some of its most powerful leaves in the blend, which is finished with a Habano-seed wrapper leaf grown in Nicaragua.

Padron: 3000 Robusto Maduro

Strength: 3.5 5 1/2 x 50 Wrapper: Nicaragua Maduro

The history behind this cigar is synonymous with the escape of tyranny and the onslaught of Communism in Cuba. Jose Padron fled Cuba at the pinnacle of the evolution and landed in his adopted home of Nicaragua. He settled in Miami in 1964 and began his cigar making to great acclaim. This medium to full-bodied cigar is rich in flavor and box pressed.

Cohiba: Royale Toro

$80

Strength: 4.5 6 x 50 Wrapper: Maduro Jalapa Nicaragua

Cohiba is a celebrity in the cigar industry, there's no denying that. This line originated from the special blend of tobaccos that Fidel Castro himself used to smoke, and to this day the Cohiba brand continues to impress. The Cohiba Royale is all about firsts. It is the first non-Cuban Cohiba cigar that is handmade in Honduras, and it is also considered the strongest Cohiba. It is comprised of a dark, chocolaty Nicaraguan Jalapa maduro wrapper that covers a Dominican Piloto Cubano binder and a filler composed of Honduran, Nicaraguan ligero, and Dominican ligero leaves. The leaves in this unique blend have been aged from five to six years. The Cohiba Royale delivers a potent and luxurious smoking experience with rich, dark flavors.

Liga Privada: #9

$59

Strength: 4.5 6 x 50 Wrapper: Black Oscuro Puros

The wrapper alone will make your mouth water. A jet-black oscuro leaf that's toothy, oily, and rich. Underneath, aged long-fillers from seven different farms unite, creating a bold and complex bouquet. However, an extra year's worth of aging has morphed this tasty creature into a rich, meaty smoke with various notes of toast, coffee, and chocolate into a smooth, satisfying experience. This is a full-bodied but silky cigar from start to finish.

Padron: Anniversario 1964 Exclusivo

$48

Strength: 4 5 1/2 x 50 Wrapper: Nicaragua

The history behind this cigar is synonymous with the escape of tyranny and the onslaught of Communism in Cuba. Jose Padron fled Cuba at the pinnacle of the evolution and landed in his adopted home of Nicaragua. It was there that the first crops of his famous brand would create his signature vintage line in 1964.

FLAVOR INFUSED AND MINIATURE

Bourbon Infused Cigar: Toro $35

Strength: 3 6 x 50 Wrapper: Sumatra

These truly unique cigars use long leaf tobacco grown in the Dominican from Cuban Seed. The Sumatra wrapper is seasoned with Maker's Mark Bourbon to further this cigar's distinction.

Macanudo M: Coffee Infused Toro $29

Strength: 2.5 5 ½ x 52 Wrapper: Indonesian Bezuki

Presenting the first ever infused Macanudo, known simply as "M." With rich, lingering nuances of single-origin Colombian coffee, this cigar is perfect to enjoy as your first stick of the day, or when you're looking to wrap up your night. Handmade in the Dominican Republic, each M by Macanudo features an Indonesian Bezuki wrapper leaf with Philippine Isabella binder tobacco and Nicaraguan long fillers.

Acid: Kuba Kuba $30

Strength: 3.5 6 x 50 Wrapper: Sumatra

This is Acid's Cigars best seller. It's savory Sumatran wrapper and secret infusion of herbs and botanicals deliver an amazing bouquet of flavor rich enough for any pallet while smooth enough for the novice smoker.

Fat Bottom Betty: Robusto $24

Strength: 3 5 x 54 Wrapper: Maduro

Deadwood Tobacco Co. Cigars by Drew Estate are wrapped in a Maduro wrapper and are blended with aromatic and exotic tobaccos that bring out the natural sweetness of the cigars. Deadwood's Yummy Bitches include Fat Bottom Betty and Crazy Alice.

Crazy Alice: Pyramid $19

Strength: 3.5 4 x 52 Wrapper: Maduro

The name is crazy, the packaging is bizarre, the size is, well, less-than-traditional, but if you know Drew Estate, you're already aware that these are on the must-try list. With a maduro wrapper that's exotic and aromatic, these cigars deliver wave after wave of delicious Drew Estate flavor. Even though they are NOT infused, Crazy Alice Cigars are a part of Drew Estate's Deadwood Tobacco line which is an aromatic line of cigars that offer up an intense flavor profile that is naturally sweet and very easy on the nose.

Acid Blondie: $16

Strength: 2.5 4 x 38 Wrapper: Sumatran

Sweet and mild by nature, the Acid Blondie, is hand-made at the Drew Estate's Estelí, Nicaragua factory. Inspired by the culture of urban art, the visual experience is designed to match the taste and aroma that make Acid cigars stand out. With its sweet, smooth, and sugary tastes of cinnamon, coffee, and vanilla, the Acid Blondie nestled in a light-brown Sumatra wrapper is the original version that inspired and launched the variations that would come afterwards.

Flavored Trios: Cigarillos $22

Crafted from high quality Dominican filler and Indonesian wrapper, every cigar is expertly finished with premium quality flavors.

CAO Eileen's Dream: Irish Crème with white chocolate truffles

CAO Moontrance: Flavors of berries infused with Bourbon and Vanilla
